OFFICE NO. 112 WEST GOLD AVENUE.

From the Daily, Dec. 2.

Rev. C. L. Mills is confined to his bed at Santa Fe with measles.

Ira M. Howard, Santa Fe, watching the proceedings of the land court.

Ber Johnson, the cattle inspector for this district, visited Santa Fe yesterday.

George E. Brown, sheriff of Prescott, Arizona, came in from the west on his news last night.

Andy Horne, the popular first street liveryman, was confined to his bed yesterday with sickness.

Mrs. Judge Warren, who has been seriously ill with erysipelas in her face, is reported slightly improving.

J. Thorpe, a machinist in the Atlantic & Pacific ship, is just recovering from a serious spell of neuralgia.

The fire companies, at their regular meeting on the Third Tuesday of this month, the 15th, will elect new officers.

Chas. W. Davis, with his brother, H. R. Davis, and sister, Miss Lura Davis, registered last night at the European, from Flagstaff.

The grocery store of Chapman & Co. is receiving a general overhauling. The painters have newly painted the front a pretty, bright red.

At Las Vegas the jury found W. F. Tipton guilty of the murder of Tyronal Laterty, and he was sentenced to eighteen years in the penitentiary.

Near Las Vegas Pedro Lopez and Juan Garcia had a fight, and Lopez stabbed Garcia, causing death in a short time. Lopez is in jail for the crime.

Mrs. J. Ulmer, of Estes Park, mother of Mrs. Clara Mansard, wife of the enterprising flour miller, has arrived and will remain during the winter.

Mrs. C. W. Coston, with her invalid son, W. B. Coston, is at the Arms from Westfield, Mass. They will arrange to spend the winter in the country.

J. T. McLaughlin, manager of the Copper company, and wife are here at the San Felipe from San Pedro. They will remain in the city for a few days.

At a meeting of the school board last evening the school bonds of this city were sold to W. S. Strickler of the Bank of Commerce at good figures, for a cigar firm.

The jury, bailiffs and other court attaches were discharged this morning, and the district court will devote the rest of this month to chancery business and motions.

Yesterday, Sheriff Lockhart of Grant county placed Juan Cordero in the territorial penitentiary. This convict will serve a five years' sentence for assault with intent to kill.

Judge S. B. Newcomb, of Las Cruces, who has been to Santa Fe attending the opening of the land court, stopped in the city last night on his return to his home in the Mesilla valley.

B. F. Karrack, president of the Gallup Coal company, came down from Pueblo, Col., his home, last night, and after remaining here during the day, will go out to the mines at Galing to night.

The overflow of children at the public school in precinct 25 will be provided for by the opening of an additional school next Monday. The school will be in a building near the Presbyterian church on Lead avenue.

Milt. Katzenberg, the tourist for Lowenthal & Meyers, is back from a successful trip along the Atlantic & Pacific. He brought in with him two English pug dogs which were presented to him by David L. Lee.

At a meeting of the city school board last evening, M. Custers was elected clerk of the board to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of R. M. Barber. Mr. Custers was well fitted to discharge the duties of the office.

At high noon to-day in Clarkston, Mich., Henry Kinsey and Miss Lillian Hirst were married. Both parties are well known in this city. Before their return to the southwest the couple will take a bridal trip to all the principal cities of the east.

R. Michaels, the Lincoln, N. M., general merchant, who was seriously ill for weeks at the hospital at Fort Stanton, is at the Armijo, but still weak and feeble as a result of his illness. He has been advised to remain here until he completely regains his health.

William Pasano, the Pueblo Indian merchant and sheep raiser at Laguna, arrived in the city this morning with fifteen sacks of wood and two wagon loads of pelts, which were sold to George Oberne & Co. William is an educated Indian, having gone to school at Carlisle, Penn., and is a remarkably correct English scholar. He is said to be the wealthiest man in Laguna.

W. P. Edie, who has been out in the Navajo reservation picking up traps in sheep and did really purchase several thousand head at very low figures, states that he had a very disagreeable experience. He was en route to his store, about fifteen miles away from any stoping place and right out in the open, barren prairie, when his horse suddenly became frightened at a huge black snake, which coiled from a cactus bush, and he was thrown to the ground. The horse grappled away, was not caught, and Mr. Edie had to lead it to the shop, arriving there some time in the night. He was badly cut, however, to remove his waders and gave battle to the snake, shooting it with his revolver, but revenged only for causing his horse to shy and throw him.

The Upper water company held a meeting this morning at the law office of Warren, Ferguson & Bruner. There were present J. D. Ferguson, C. E. French, of St. Louis; Duquaine Lunn, Peter A. Simpson and Judge Warren. Several propositions were considered for the construction of high-rock foundations, and the report of George Simpson read and fully agreed. The meeting adjourned to the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, to meet again at the same hour.

George W. Vogel, who conducted the fair in the old town during fair days, left for numerous excursions, quietly disappearing from the city, has given himself a sound fit. From a letter it is learned that he was seen in the Laramie and at Cheyenne, and was shipped off his horses, wagons, harness, etc., to Wyoming City, and would not let the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad company get him from him, who he was then. Vogel, who had recommended as an honest man, but his friends have undoubtedly sold him some people that he is not honest.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Franz Husing Ordered to Remove Buildings from Railroad Grounds.

This morning there were rumors of trouble fast in the streets that Franz Husing, owner of the buildings occupied by Salmon & Stanning, Elise, Brod and Beng. M. Leon & Co., at the corner of Gold Avenue and First street, on the east side, and who are located on land belonging to the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad company, had been notified by A. V. Robinson, second vice-president and general manager of the company, to remove the same within forty-eight hours or he would be put to the humiliation of being laughed at.

(From the Citizen, Dec. 2.)

L. H. Smith, a powder drummer from New York, is in the city.

First street, Gold avenue south, is being graded and leveled.

A slight snow fell in the Sandia mountains last night and this morning.

Mrs. J. H. Hughes and children left last night for a visit to California.

J. T. Kelly and wife, Trinidad, and J. H. Bishop, Williams, Arizona, are at the European.

S. P. Bartley, a commercial traveler from San Francisco, is in the city with his samples.

Sam. Stern, of the cigar firm of Stern Bros. left last night for a trip over the Atlantic & Pacific.

E. Giblin, connected with the Copper company, came up from the south last night and is mingling with the people at the San Felipe.

Chas. Stern, of Stern Bros., cigar dealers, yesterday sold valuable oil mining land near to this city for $12,800.

S. H. Fairchild, the Kansas city grocery商人, who is interested in property in several portions of the territory, can be found at the Armijo.

Hugh Mauro, of Chicago, and A. C. Edgar, of Rushville, Ill., who are not blessed with that greatest of all blessings, good health, are at the San Felipe.

Arthur E. Hill, of Cleveland, Ohio, by the way not a health seeker but on a visit to a brother, registered last night at the San Felipe. He will probably remain here.

The government Indian school north of the city is being provided with irrigation works extensive enough to irrigate the whole farm. Major Creager is a worker.

Chas. F. Burns and T. C. Bristol, of Las Vegas, were noticed this morning standing on the sunny side of the San Felipe. It is pretty cold at Las Vegas these days.

J. H. Drury, the builder and contractor, was thrown from his wagon this morning, his horse at the time running away, and was pretty badly hurt about the legs and hands.

Joseph Acton, a brother of John Acton, of this city, has arrived from Denver, and will remain during the winter.

This is the first meeting of the brothers for nineteen years.

W. G. Michael, of Denver, who is here to look over the city with a view of becoming identified with its interests, came down from the north last night and put his name on the register at the Armijo.

John Donohoe, the village blacksmith here years ago, has returned to the city from Trinidad, where he has been for the past three years. He has come back to the city to stay, and will soon locate in business.

The company is composed of exceedingly good men, who have capital at their calling, and they will ultimately be rewarded with great financial success.

Will Visit This City.

The judges and attaches of the private land court will visit this city next Monday and Tuesday, and will be entertained by the Bar association of this district and the Commercial club. The visitors will be guests of the club while in the city, and will be shown every attention.

Commercial club meeting Saturday night, December 5, 1891. Important. Let every member attend.

S. E. Ross, Secretary.

The contract for building the two new bridges across the Rio Grande was awarded by the county commissioners yesterday afternoon to the King Iron Bridge and Manufacturing company, their bid being $17 per foot for the Howe truss, per 100 foot span, and $7.65 per foot for trestle approaches.

"I use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral freely in my practice, and recommend it in cases of whooping cough among children, having found it more certain to cure that troublesome disease than any other medicine I know of." So says Dr. Bartlett, of Concord, Mass.

There is no further news relative to the order of General Manager Robinson, of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe road, remitting Franz Husing to come within sixty days his buildings on the company's lot at the corner of Gold and First street. As stated in THE CITIZEN yesterday, others to copy railroad ground, but Mr. Husing is the only one to receive notice to remove. Some of our citizens are of the belief that the company intend to erect repair houses on the land which are off the ground.

Foster S. De Leesps, an Adirondack in the early days, who went farther west, stopped in the Kingman and Mineral Park sections of Arizona, and soon afterwards became a wealthy mine operator, at the San Felipe from Kingman. Mr. De Leesps is now in Denver on business connected with the Taggart metal company of Kingman, of which he is one of the principal owners. Mr. De Leesps' wife is the Kingman water works, and the C. O. D. gold mine at Mineral Park. He has with him a sum of $10,000 of the ore from the mine, which shows up seven percent in gold and other minerals.

A Sheep Thief.

Louis Hulme and F. M. Speare drove up from Los Lunas yesterday afternoon, registering at the Armijo. The latter will remain here a few days under the care of Dr. Kaster, and last night his wife and son came upon the midnight train to be with him.

Mr. Speare states that Frank Blake, son of Col. F. A. Blake, who turned out bad, a few weeks ago, stole between 100 and 150 sheep from Mentor Romer, near Rita Quadrado, in western Valencia county, driving off the sheep in broad daylight. Mr. Blake and several of his brothers followed, but Blake stood his ground with his Winchester and the party retired, leaving the daring young man in possession of the sheep. The thief was reported to the official, and Blake, with the widow sheep, is being hunted.

About five months ago, Blake corralled several hundred sheep belonging to Andrew Romer, of this city, taking them from his ranch in Valencia county, and after considerable trouble, which resulted in Blake's arrest and incarceration in the Los Lunas jail, the sheep were finally recovered by Sheriff Larue and his deputies and returned to Mr. Romer. For this offense he had a preliminary hearing before Mr. Speare, who is justice of the peace of Los Lunas, and was bound over in sum of $1,000 to answer at the next grand jury of Valencia county.

It is understood that the fire companies will make a display that is, will parade on Washington's day, if the birthday of "Father of Our Country" is properly observed in the territorial metropolis.

The Atlanta Pacific hose boys still keep in organization. They are a brave set of machine-hands, working in the railroad shops in the southern portion of the city, and their magnificent display during fair week is well remembered.

It is rumored that there is trouble among the members of the A. A. Grant hose company, will be present at the regular meeting of this company for several months past. It is also stated that a few of the members are anxious to change the name.
